

WHITE EAGLE NEWS

AUGUST 2006 issue no. 8

THANK YOU

It is amazing to see the transformation that has been made since May 2005 – a new wine list, guest beers, fantastic food and meticulous housekeeping (Alex and Kirsty are very fussy). All these changes have been achieved by a group of people who have together created a really buzzy place with a warm and friendly welcome.

We would like to give a very grateful thanks to everyone who has contributed to an amazing 16 months at the White Eagle.

First the home team. We have seen a lot of changes in the Chef's department (we soon found it is a familiar problem for publicans). But behind the bar and serving the food we have found that most of the team have bravely stayed with us and through them we have received lots of reports of great customer service.

We have also received enthusiastic support from our suppliers near and far not only providing us with produce to be proud of but also giving us loads of helpful advice. Finally, we would like to thank our customers. The pub was very much busier than we expected over the Winter due to local support. We particularly remember the very successful New Year's Eve party – wait for December 31st 2007. We would also like to thank the walkers, sailors and other holiday makers visiting Rhoscolyn for spreading the word and recommending us to their friends from all over the country and a few from all over the world. As a result of everyone's help we have more than doubled the turnover and made most people connected with the White Eagle very happy indeed.

Our greatest thanks go to Stuart and Kirsty, two very special people who arrived to rescue us in our hour of need and have taught us all we now know about the Licensing Trade to put it all into practice. They have been tremendous.

PROGRESS REPORT

We are rapidly approaching our major building project and sadly the White Eagle will be closed right through the Autumn and Winter. Some people have suggested that we should leave the pub alone, but a visit when we are bursting at the seams on a Bank Holiday, or a tour of the Kitchen at any time should convince anybody there is plenty of room for improvement. Our aim is to provide the best pub on Anglesey, so changes have to be made, but we promise we won't change the informal friendly character of the White Eagle. At the moment we innocently expect the whole project will be completed without a hitch demonstrating our naivety. We will continue to produce the White Eagle News while we are closed, so you can keep up-to-date with the progress and hear all the horror stories. To keep in touch complete one of our cards and we will send you a copy.

SEE YOU NEXT YEAR

If all goes well we should reopen for business in April 2007, a forecast made with somewhat more certainty than the predictions about Wembley Stadium. So look out for news of our reopening night to see how generous we are with any special opening offers and to see whether we can get the builders to have us back in business before Easter.
