

RHOSCOLYN CIRCULAR WALK

A lovely coastal walk with stunning views the entire way. The trail is pretty flat and initially takes you from Traeth Borth Wen along the coastal path towards Traeth Llydan.

-  Starting Point
-  Main Route
-  Direction
-  Road
-  Note Overleaf

1 WHITE EAGLE - TRAETH BORTHWEN

Leave the car park and follow the road to the end, passing the post box on your lefthand side. Take a left at the junction, and head towards the church. Head to the left of the church and go over the stile and through the gate onto the track 3.9 miles. Turn left and follow the track to the farm. Go through Kissing gate on right 4.1 miles. Cross field to next Kissing gate then keep to the left hand side of the field. Follow path through two more Kissing gate which brings you onto the coastal path 4.5 miles. Turn left across footbridge and through Kissing gate. Now follow path taking care, as there are cliffs on your right and a high wall on your left. Go through the Kissing gate at the end of the wall then follow the path, which passes St. Gwenfaen's well, to the coastguard station 5.1 miles. There are good views along the coast and across to the mainland from the coastguard station head downhill, passing through two fields and two Kissing gate 5.4 miles. Follow the path between the houses and through the gardens to the beach. Cross the beach or use the footpath on the left back to the car park.

2 BORTHWEN BEACH CAR PARK - SILVER BAY

Walk back up the road for 75 yards turn right at Coastal Footpath sign. In 0.2 miles turn left at Footpath sign. Go through the kissing gate and straight on past the house named Cae Llyn, up the drive and out through the gate then turn right. 0.3 miles. Keep left at track junction 0.5 miles. Go through the Kissing gate and follow Coastal footpath sign onto the headland. Carry on along this path keeping to the sea edge. Walk round the headland looking at the sea views and heading towards the caravan site but keeping to the coast. At 1.1 miles there is a Kissing gate and three foot bridges. Turn inland to Coastal footpath sign. Crossing field and go through another kissing gate. Follow path along the headland, cross the footbridge and continue on the path to silver sand beach / Traeth Llydan 1.8 miles Follow Coastal footpath sign onto the beach.

3 SILVER BAY - TY WERL

Turn up steps 1.9 miles. Follow the path through the forest. Go through the Kissing gate to derelict (at present) farm buildings called Bryn y Bar 2.1 miles Follow signs along the track out to the road. Keep on the road ignoring Coastal footpath sign at 3 miles on the right. Turn right at the road junction. Shortly after passing Tyn Lon take footpath on the left following it through the fields and through the garden of Ty Woods. Bear left on the road at Llainsbyllidir. (At this point you can continue down the road back to the car park) Turn right at the footpath sign 3.6 miles, if you wish to complete the whole walk. In the shooting season, sometimes the path is blocked, but carry on along the road where you can rejoin the path further up)

When venturing into the countryside, wear adequate footwear and take a waterproof. Follow the Countryside Code and respect other countryside users and wildlife. If walking with a dog, keep under close control (preferably on a lead) and take great care not to disturb livestock. Remember to check the weather forecast before you set off.

Flock Inns is part of the Timpson Family business and includes four fantastic sites - The White Eagle and The Oyster Catcher in Anglesey, The Partridge in Cheshire and Le Tremplin in Morzine, France. While each site has it's own history and personality, we run them all with the consistent principles of kindness, great service, a warm welcome, and giving employment opportunities to everyone, especially those who have had difficulties in life.

Thank you for supporting us.